

A man in a grey suit and red tie stands on a grassy field, speaking into a microphone. He is wearing a name tag. Behind him, several children in soccer uniforms are visible. To the right, a large banner for a school festival is hanging from a building. The banner features colorful text and illustrations of children. The building has a curved roof and several vertical pillars. The scene is outdoors, with trees and a clear sky in the background.

A large group of children, mostly boys, are dressed in blue traditional-style uniforms with white accents and are performing a drumming routine on a large blue tarp spread over a sandy area. They are holding and playing large, round, orange-brown drums. In the foreground, a boy is standing and playing a drum. Behind him, many other children are arranged in rows, some kneeling and some standing, all playing their drums. The background shows a line of trees and a white building under a clear blue sky.

A group of people, including children and adults, are standing in a line outdoors. They are gathered around a table covered with a white cloth that has Japanese text on it. The background shows trees and a building.
